Nebraska STATE FIRST TIMER AWARD Application

The First Timer Award was established in observation of the Golden Anniversary of Rho State in 1986. The purpose of the $250 award is to encourage Nebraska State members to attend international conferences and international conventions by assisting financially with a stipend. The selection shall be made by the Educational Excellence Committee in odd-numbered years for international conferences and even-numbered years for international conventions.

Guidelines for the recipients shall be:

- a. a first-time participant at an international conference or international convention;
- b. an active member at the chapter level;
- c. an application form submitted, including a chapter president's written note of recommendation;
- d. completion of a written report after attending the international conference or international convention, and if requested, reporting at the next state convention and workshops.
